Re: USA v. Christian Reyes-Palomares
Dist. Dkt.: 23 Cr 520 (VB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

I was counsel for Defendant Christian Reyes-Palomares in the above matter, assigned to this matter pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act.

I write to the Court requesting that Seán McCabe, an associate in my firm Anderson Kill, be authorized to work on this matter, at the $120/hour rate, nunc pro tunc to the date of my assignment by Hon. Andrew E. Krause, United States Magistrate Judge.

I have reviewed the work that was done in this case, it was necessary to the zealous representation of the client, and the total number of hours that I am seeking approval for is 4.9.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. I have attached the resume of Sean McCabe to this request. I thank the Court for its consideration.

Best regards,

Samuel M. Braverman

Seán McCabe is an attorney in the New York office of Anderson Kill and a member of the firm's White Collar Defense and Insurance Recovery groups.

Seán has had a key role in trial preparation and legal research on federal criminal cases arising out of the Southern District of New York, including major white collar criminal cases, conspiracy, and RICO cases. He also represents policyholders in insurance coverage disputes

Before entering private practice, Seán worked at the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office as part of an LLM Program of Temple University. He also interned with the Hon. Charles J. Cunningham III in Philadelphia, who presided over state criminal and civil matters. In Ireland, Seán worked with a large, multidisciplinary firm where he served as a summer associate for a partner, focusing on commercial, criminal, and malpractice litigation. He is admitted to practice in New York State Court and Federal District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.

A native of Ireland, Seán graduated magna cum laude from the University College of Cork in Ireland with a Bachelors of Law degree concentrating on International Criminal Law and is completing (with honors) his LLM at Temple University.
